The Secret Language of Healthcare: How to Ask for the Care You Deserve

We will be joined by Robin Shapiro of HealthAdvocateX, who will explain how to understand the healthcare system, communicate effectively with your doctors, and understand when independent experts may be needed.

- Discover how to work more powerfully with your doctor.
- Learn the questions that can save your life in the hospital.
- Be prepared before you are facing a critical medical situation.
- Understand which independent experts can help when you need them most.
- All attendees will receive a complimentary copy of Robin's book: The Secret Language of Healthcare
