

AEGIS GARDENS PRESENTS

Hearing Loss & Cognitive Decline
with Audiologist and CDP
Dr. Tom Littman, Ph.D.

Wednesday
November 13th
4:00pm - 5:00pm

Growing research shows that untreated hearing loss is the #1 modifiable risk factor for cognitive decline.

Dr. Littman will offer strategies to mitigate the progression of this disorder.

KINDLY RSVP

<https://visit.aegisliving.com/Littman>
or call 425-970-6708

Join us for this in-person event with an American Academy of Audiology Scholar, Dr. Tom Littman. If you have questions about hearing loss, this session is for you!

Dr. Tom Littman, Ph.D.

Audiologist, Certified Dementia Practitioner
Owner of Factoria Hearing Center

Dr. Littman is a licensed audiologist who earned a Ph.D. from Louisiana State University and a post-doctoral fellowship at Northwestern University.

With over four decades of clinical expertise, Dr. Littman offers counseling, education, and strategies to mitigate the decline in patients and their families. He also provides diagnostic and rehabilitation services, along with hearing aid evaluations, fittings, and programming. Dr. Littman is committed to following current scientific developments to ensure that his patients receive optimal evidence-based care.

Aegis Gardens
Assisted Living | Memory Care

NEWCASTLE
13056 SE 76th Street
Newcastle, WA 98056
425-970-6708